Office of LGBT Life

Partnerships with the Center for Women

The Office of LGBT Life and the Center for Women is offering weekly, hour-long discussion groups on topics related to sexual and gender identities.

Queer People of Color Group (Thursdays, 6-7pm)—This group provides graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to explore the ways to celebrate their identities and navigate a predominately white, hetero/gender-normative campus as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, and/or intersex people of color. This week's topic: Queer Adolescence and Queer Role Models

Queer Women Group (Tuesdays, 6-7pm)—This group provides graduate and undergraduate students with the opportunity to explore the joys and challenges of being a queer, trans, lesbian, bisexual, same-gender loving, and/or pansexual woman at Emory. This week's topic: Being out professionally.

Focus Groups

The Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) Life, Office of Multicultural Programs and Services, Center for Women and Office of Religious Life are seeking students to participate in focus groups to assess the needs of students on campus. Participants will be provided with dinner and a $15 gift card to the Emory University Book Store. Participants must personally identify as a member of the particular identity group(s). Please contact lgbt@emory.edu to sign up for one or more of the groups.

Now Taking 2011 GALA Leadership Award Applications

The 2011 Gay and Lesbian Alumni Leadership Award application is now available. This $2500 scholarship is open to all current Emory undergraduate students who will be enrolled in classes during the 2011-2012 academic year. Click here for the application.

Creating Change Conference Scholarship

The Office of LGBT Life invites you to apply for a scholarship to attend The Task Force's 23rd National Conference on LGBT Equality: Creating Change in Minneapolis, Minnesota, February 2-6, 2011. The award covers registration, shared accommodations, and travel costs. Click here for the full application.

StoryCorps Atlanta

StoryCorps Atlanta is working with the Office of LGBT Life and other local LGBTQ organizations to encourage everyone to come tell their stories and preserve the voices of LGBTQ individuals across the nation.. Participants will have 40 minutes to record a conversation with a loved one. Each conversation is recorded on a free CD to share, and is preserved at the Library of Congress.

Internship Opportunities

Feminist Women's Health Center Internships

The Feminist Women's Health Center is a local non-profit organization that offers sexual health services to women living in Atlanta. FWCH also does political advocacy and work to ensure reproductive justice at the state level, and community outreach to build relationships and raise awareness. As part of the Young Women's Leadership Project, the Feminist Women's Health Center offers one of the most unique leadership building opportunities for college and university level students. For more information on internship opportunities, click here.

ORAM

The Organization for Refuge, Asylum and Migration is the leading NGO providing advocacy, representation and community education on LGBTI refugees escaping persecution based on their sexual orientation, sexual identity, or gender. ORAM is looking for committed and highly-qualified externs to assist with research and writing on issues relevant to asylum and refugee claims based on gender identity and sexual orientation. There are several externship/fellowship positions throughout the year for the fall, spring and summer terms. For more information about ORAM's positions please send an email to externship@oraminternational.org.

Research Opportunities

Tobacco Use in the LGBTQ Community

The Health Initiative is hosting a series of focus groups to learn more about tobacco use in our community. We want to hear from everyone, including smokers, former smokers, and people who have never smoked. We will feed you and compensate you $25 for your time. Marta tokens are also available for participants. If you are 18 or over and a member of the LGBTQ community in the greater Atlanta area, we'd love to include you in one of our focus groups. Focus groups last one hour and are at the Phillip Rush Center. For dates, more information, or to register, contact Scarbrough at 404-688-2524 x 2 or Brigid@thehealthinitiative.org

Vocational Interests and Coping Behaviors of Sexual Minorities

Mike C. Parent, a doctoral student in Counseling Psychology at the University of Florida, is conducting research on vocational interests and coping behaviors among sexual minority persons. Access study here.

LGBT Marriage Research

Engaged volunteers needed!

Dr. Charlotte J Patterson, a Professor of Psychology at the University of Virginia, is looking for volunteers for a study of attitudes towards marriage and parenthood among engaged couples.

The study consists of a 25-30 minute online survey.

To qualify for the study, you must be 20-35 years old, live in the U.S., and plan to marry or have a commitment ceremony within the next 365 days.

You and your romantic partner must not have children, and this must be the first marriage for both of you.

If you and/or your romantic partner are interested in participating or want further information, please email Dr. Patterson at survey.couples@gmail.com

Planned Parenthood Survey

Planned Parenthood in Atlanta is collecting feedback to develop and further grow its young professionals group, the Planned Parenthood Young Leaders (PPYL). PPYL's mission is to inspire and educate a new generation about Planned Parenthood's health services and sex education programs.

Click here to participate in the survey. Anyone who completes the survey by December 15 will be entered in a raffle to win an iPod shuffle.
