For Gay Students, More Room on Campuses

By Sara Lipka

Students in the University of Rhode Island's GLBT community are fed up with what they describe as their marginalization. They are seeking, among other resources, respectable headquarters, where they can invite professors, hold events, and develop a sense of belonging on the campus. Since a weeklong protest this past fall, they are gaining ground. For more info click here.

Office of LGBT Life

Queer Discussion Groups

The Office of LGBT Life and the Center for Women is offering weekly, hour-long discussion groups on topics related to sexual and gender identities. Please note the change in days, times, and locations.

Queer People of Color Group (Thursdays, 6-7pm, Office of LGBT Life)—This group provides graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to explore the ways to celebrate their identities and navigate a predominately white, hetero/ gender-normative campus as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, and/or intersex people of color.

Queer Women Group (Thursdays, 7-8pm, Center for Women)—This group provides graduate and undergraduate students with the opportunity to explore the joys and challenges of being a queer, trans, lesbian, bisexual, same-gender loving, and/or pansexual woman at Emory.

LGBTQueer Muslim Group This group provides Muslim graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to explore and celebrate their faith, culture, sexual identity and gender identity in a safe and supportive environment. Students who identify as Muslim and lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, same-gender-loving, and/or queer are welcome to attend. For more information about this group, meeting time and location, contact Michael Shutt, Director of the Office of LGBT Life at mshutt@emory.edu.

Queer Discussion Group Facilitator Application

Application now available for students interested in becoming a queer discussion group facilitator for the 2011-2012 academic year. Three groups will be offered including a Queer Women's Group, Queer Students of Color Group, and a Queer Interfaith Group. Applications are due April 8, 2011. Click here for more information.

Transforming Emory

Trans Forming Emory will meet bi-weekly beginning January 19th. Each meeting will include a topic for discussion. All are welcome to attend. Meetings occur in the Office of LGBT Life at 5:30 p.m.

- March 30th-Discussion: "Knowing trans, knowing you, know what it means to be an ally."
- April 13th-Film: Glen or Glenda

Safe Space Lunch and Learns Announced!

Beginning in January, we will offer hour-long continuing education opportunities that will focus on various areas of the queer community. Dates of Lunch and Learns include:

- March 30th, Few Multipurpose Room at noon: Transgender 101: Exploring Sex and Gender
- April 27th at noon (Date Changed!): Exploring the Needs of Queer Students of Faith, Queer Students of Color, and Transgender Students at Emory
Bring your lunch and bring a friend!

Emory Queer Health Advocacy League

Meetings are every 3rd Wednesday of the month

EQHAL is an informal group of students, faculty and staff that have an interest in the health and health disparities affecting sexual minorities. The meetings are held over lunch, and are a great way to educate yourself on some of the unique aspects of LGBT health and the hurdles the community faces in obtaining care. EQHAL meets every third Wednesday of the month at noon in the Office of LGBT Life. Contact Kevin Shi at kevinxshi@gmail.com for more information.
