Office of LGBT Life 20th Anniversary

Over the next year, the Office will be sharing about the events, people, and stories of the past 20 years. Check out the last page of our newsletter each week to learn about how the Office became what it is today. Also, you can find more information about the Office's 20th Anniversary in the newsletter, on our website, and on our bulletin board outside Dobbs University Center 246E.

The NCAA Has Clarified Their Policies on Transgender Athletes

The National Collegiate Athletic Association has clarified its policies on when transgender athletes can compete, largely embracing the recommendations of advocacy groups and making clear the circumstances under which a transitioning male can play on a female team, and vice versa.

“There was pretty much unanimous endorsement,” said Mary Wilfert, the NCAA associate director in health and safety. “It is a significant move.”

Office of LGBT Life

Queer Discussion Groups

The Office of LGBT Life and the Center for Women is offering weekly, hour-long discussion groups on topics related to sexual and gender identities. Please note the change in days, times, and locations.

Queer People of Color Group

Mondays, 7-8pm, Office of LGBT Life

This group provides graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to explore the ways to celebrate their identities and navigate a predominately white, hetero/ gender-normative campus as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, and/or intersex people of color.

Queer Women Group

Tuesdays, 7-8pm, Center for Women

This group provides graduate and undergraduate students with the opportunity to explore the joys and challenges of being a queer, trans, lesbian, bisexual, same-gender loving, and/or pansexual woman at Emory.

NEW Queer Interfaith Group

Thursdays, 7-8pm, Office of LGBT Life

This group explores ways of integrating one's religion, spirituality, sexual identity, and gender identity. This group is for students who identify as queer students of faith.

Weekly Student Groups

LGBTQueer Muslim Group

This group provides Muslim graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to explore and celebrate their faith, culture, sexual identity and gender identity in a safe and supportive environment. Students who identify as Muslim and lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, same-gender-loving, and/or queer are welcome to attend. For more information about this group, meeting time and location, contact Michael Shutt, Director of the Office of LGBT Life at mshutt@emory.edu.

Queer & Asian (Q&A)

Q&A is Emory's confidential group for students who wish to celebrate and explore their identities as lesbian, gay, bi, transgender, queer, questioning, and/or intersex people of any Asian heritage. For more information, contact Michael Shutt, Director of the Office of LGBT Life at mshutt@emory.edu or Dohyun Ahn at ddahn@emory.edu.

Emory Pride

This student organization provides Emory students with opportunities to engage in advocacy, education, and social interactions to create a stronger and more inclusive queer and allied community. The group meets on Wednesdays at 7pm. Email Kovonn Tanner (mktanne@emory.edu) or Brianne Rivera (bariver@emory.edu) for more information.

Transforming Emory

This group builds community for transgender, gender variant, transsexual, genderqueer, gender questioning people and their allies, friends, and partners. First meeting is September 15th at 5:30pm in the Office of LGBT Life. Dinner will be provided. For additional information, email trans.emory@gmail.com or lgbt@emory.edu.

Safe Space Trainings

Want to raise your awareness and increase your knowledge of queer issues and concerns? Attend a 3.5 hour training and learn how to put what you learn into action. Trainings are open to faculty, staff, and students. Training dates for the fall are:

- October 19th, 9am-12:30pm
- November 14th, 1pm-4:30pm

For more information or to register, visit our website.

Out on Campus Campaign

The Office of LGBT Life is launching a campaign to increase awareness of campus non-discrimination and equal opportunity policies through the stories of LGBTQ individuals and their allies. Any Emory student, employee or alumna/us who identifies along the spectrum of lesbian, transgender, queer, gay, genderqueer, bisexual, same-gender-loving, etc. (non-heterosexual and/or gender normative) identities can sign up to be on the OUT on Campus webpage. This public page will be hosted on the Office of LGBT Life's website here with your name, affiliation with Emory, sexual and gender identities, and picture. To submit your information, click here.

Lunch & Learn: Toilet Training

September 29th Noon Dobbs University Center 355

Queer Connections Survey

The Office of LGBT Life is planning a series of Queer Connections events for LGBTQ students to interact with LGBTQ faculty for personal and professional development and/or mentoring opportunities. We'd love to get feedback from students about what this program should look like. Take a few moments to complete this survey, and enter a draw to win one of 5 $15 Barnes and Noble gift cards! Take the survey here.

News & Events at EmoryFeminists In Action Meetings (Starting August 31st)Wednesdays 5:45pm-7:00pmCenter for Women*

FIA is a student-led grassroots organization at Emory that is dedicated to learning about, embodying, and enacting feminist principles and ways of life. Through educational, activist, and social opportunities, FIA examines and fights individual and systemic forms of oppression. For more information, contact Conrad Honicker chonick@emory.edu or visit FIA's website.

GALA-Emory's LGBTQ Alumni Planning Meeting

Still wondering how you can become involved with Emory after you graduate or as a current alum? Leave it to GALA, Emory's LGBTQ alumni group, to help you answer that question! Here are the dates of our upcoming meetings where you'll learn about what we do and share new ideas, network with fellow LGBTQ alumni, and maybe even shake things up a bit. After all, what's the point of being involved if you can't change something? We hope you can join us! Click here to let us know you're coming.

Dates of future meetings are:

- Oct. 11th
- Nov. 8th

Studies in Sexualities Meet and Greet*September 27th5:30 pm White Hall 110*

For more information, call 912-478-5409 or email msc@georgiasouthern.edu. Register online here.

Research Opportunities

National Trans*, Two-Spirit, Intersex Mapping Project Survey

The survey will gather background information about your organization, the communities you serve, key issues impacting those communities, the resources in place that support your work, and those resources that are missing or are still needed to support your work and to strengthen Trans*, Two-Spirit, and Intersex communities. The Arcus Foundation will use the results from this survey to inform their Trans*-, Two-Spirit-, and Intersex-related work moving forward. The survey is 20 minutes long with a deadline of September 30th. Click here to take the survey. For more information, visit here.

LGBQ Latino/Latina Men and Women

The online survey is a part of a study that will contribute to understanding of the experiences and well-being of Latina/o lesbian, gay, and bisexual individuals. Participation will take approximately 30 minutes. To complete the survey, men click here and women click here. Contact velezbl@gmail.com or cdp309@lehigh.edu.

Volunteers Needed for LGBQ Discrimination and Minority Stress Survey

If you are 18 or older and lesbian, gay, bisexual, or queer, please participate in a national and anonymous on-line survey study on the psychological effects of sexual minority discrimination and ways of managing minority stress. The study will take about 20 to 30 minutes to complete. Benefit to you as a participant involves contributing to our understanding of the effects of sexual minority discrimination on our communities, and how to better help LGBQ people manage sexual minority discrimination. Complete the survey, and be eligible to win from $10 to up to $50 in gift cards. If interested, please go to the following survey link: https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/Discrimination_and_Minority_Stress

Effects of Discrimination on Living Out a Calling

The purpose of this study is to investigate how discrimination against lesbian, gay, and bisexual people affects their ability to carry out their ideal careers. Access the research here. For more information contact Blake at ballan3@ufl.edu.

Trans Gender Embodied States of Recognition

You are invited to participate in the Trans Gender Embodied States of Recognition research project, which explores recognition and experiences using personal identification documentation (IDs). The survey, which may take 10 to 30 minutes to complete, includes questions about your gender identification, IDs and experiences using them, name and pronoun recognition, your transition-related decisions, how you have felt in the past week, and basic demographic information. To participate, click here. For more information, contact Tre at tlwentli@maxwell.syr.edu or Andrew London at (315)443-3253 or anlondon@maxwell.syr.edu.

LGBT Student Leaders Patterns of Accessing Help & Support

If you identify as a leader in a campus Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender student organization, Gay Straight Alliance, or other similar organization, you are invited to participate in a study that seeks to better understand how and when LGBT student leaders on college campuses access support. We hope that through gaining a better understanding of how LGBT student leaders access support, campuses become more hospitable and welcoming environments for LGBT students. If you decide to participate, we will ask you to complete a brief fifteen (15) minute survey on your experiences as a student leader. At the end of the survey you may volunteer to participate in a follow-up interview or in a local focus group. To complete the survey, click here.

Bisexual Women's Experiences of Anti-Bisexual Prejudice When In Same- and Other-Sex Relationships

the study investigates bisexual women's experiences of both stigma against and support for their bisexual identity, and explores possible links between experiences of stigma and mental health. Findings from this study will help mental health clinicians work with bisexual women in a more informed, culturally competent manner, and may also inform the development or improvement of policies and programs serving the bisexual community. Access the survey here until 9/30/201.

For more information, contact cac6200@ego.thechicagoschool.edu or bberkey@thechicagoschool.edu.

A Study of Lesbians' Experience with Healthcare Professionals

This online study investigates lesbians' experiences with healthcare professionals, both the good and the bad. Participants can enter their email address for a chance to win 1 of 5 $100 cash prizes - the emails are collected separately from the survey responses to prevent identifiability. Eligible participants are self-identified lesbians who live in Canada and are 16 years or older OR who live in the USA and are 18 years or older. Access the study at <http://www.uwindsor.ca/lesbianhealthstudy>. For more information, contact stpier4@uwindsor.ca or call 1-519-253-3000 ext. 4703.

Can You Hurry Love?

Differences in Gay and Lesbian Relationship Contingency, Body Shame and Mate Urgency
You are invited to participate in a research study on the romantic relationships of gay men and lesbian women. To be eligible, you must be a gay man or lesbian woman of 18 years of age or older. You must also identify as single, defined as: not currently involved in a committed, monogamous relationship. Individuals who identify as heterosexual, bisexual, or pansexual do not meet the inclusion criteria. If you elect to participate, you will be asked to click on the link below. You will be routed to a short online survey packet. Total completion time is approximately 5-10 minutes. Access the research here. Contact Taryn Acosta, B.F.A. tjanq5@mail.umkc.edu and Dr. Chris Brown, Ph.D. brownchr@umkc.edu for more information.

Fellowships

University of Wisconsin Milwaukee's Diversity Fellows Program

We are entering into the recruitment phase for our next cohort of Diversity Fellows (2011-12). The position has been posted on UWM's employment website via the AIMS system and has been publicized in several national periodicals. This year, we have also created a brochure (enclosed), which we are asking you to share with your department chairs. The electronic version is available online at http://www4.uwm.edu/acad_aff/climate/dfp/brocure.pdf.

Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Life 1991-2011

During the 1993-1994 Academic Year

- The University Senate approved changes to the Equal Opportunity Policy to include sexual orientation.
- Saralyn Chesnut brought the Safe Space Program to Emory to help make allies more visible.
- The first LGB Film Festival was held.
- A queer alumni group was founded called Out of Emory.
- Sacred Worth, an LGBT student group in the School of Theology, was formed.

Safe Space offers education on gay and lesbian issues
Faculty and staff may wonder about the meaning of the small, multicolored stickers that will start appearing on office doors and walls over the next few months. The colorful stickers aren't ornamental; they indicate the Office of Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual Life. "In the workplace, people commonly talk about their personal lives. Part of your time at work is spent communicating with your fellow workers and building relationships with them. This is an important part of reflects the best of Emory community: accept, celebrate its diversity, that everyone in this community is valued." For offices who worked closely
