Nomination for the
2015 Marion Luther Brittain Award

The MARION LUTHER BRITTAINE AWARD is presented each year to a graduating student from any academic division of the university who is considered to have performed the most “significant, meritorious, and devoted service to Emory University with no expectation of recognition or reward.”

The award is made under provisions of a gift by the late Dr. M.L. Brittain, former President of Georgia Institute of Technology and alumnus of Emory.

The BRITTAINE AWARD is generally acknowledged to be the highest honor given to a student by Emory University.

You are invited to submit a nomination for this award to the Division of Campus Life, DUC 401E, Drawer PP. Nominees must be fall 2014 or spring 2015 graduates. Nominations must be returned by Friday, March 20, 2015.

The attached nomination form should be used, although you are invited to provide supplemental materials if you desire. A thorough nomination enhances the review of a candidate’s merits. Each student nominated will be considered by a selection committee that will determine the Brittain Award recipient.
