I hope this month’s newsletter finds you well.

During the comprehensive campaign, our theme has been “Doing Well and Doing Good.” In addition to many of our students living up to this theme, many of our staff and faculty members do the same.

Patty Zeigenhorn-Erbach, Sr. Director of Food Service and EmoryCard, received the 2009 Unsung Heroine Award from the Center for Women. The Center for Women honors women who have demonstrated extraordinary dedication to issues that affect women at Emory or in the larger community, but whose efforts heretofore have not received any accolades or formal recognition. Patty has led efforts to make Emory a more sustainable campus in the area of food service.

Mike Huey, Executive Director of Student Health and Counseling Services, has received the 2008 Jack C. Hugheston Physician of the Year Award—an honor bestowed by the Georgia Athletic Training Association (GATA). As team physician for Emory’s varsity Athletic Teams since 2002, Mike provides his time and care for nearly 350 athletes on an annual basis.

Michael Shutt, Director of the Office of Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual/Transgendered (LGBT) Life, was recently elected to the Executive Board of the Consortium of Higher Education Professionals. As Region’s Chair for Emory, he will coordinate the diverse regional networks of Consortium member institutions while ensuring member and non-member institutions have access to continuing professional development, education, advocacy, and support resources.

Please join me in congratulating Patty, Mike, and Michael on their successes.

Enjoy the month of February!
The Emory Women’s Rugby team got into gear for their first matrix season on Jan. 24 by hosting a round robin with the Georgia Tech and Georgia Southern clubs. Emory and Tech began the day, the visiting team apparently coming out to avenge their last lost of the fall season to Emory. The Eagles put up a good fight and held the yellow jackets scoreless in the first half, but Tech scored in the second half and held the home team scoreless bringing the final outcome to a 5-0 Emory loss. The women put that loss aside and went into play with the Georgia Southern eagles ready to show their true potential. Show the women did with tries scored by Leanna Racine, Kathryn Lydon, and Danielle Pavliv contributing to a 33-0 beating of the visiting Eagles. The women played an impressive match showing strong potential for the upcoming matrix season. Despite their first loss the women’s rugby team ended the round robin on a good note displaying a great deal of promise for the spring.

The Emory Men’s Lacrosse team opened up their 2009 campaign with a rout over first-year team Mercer University. Despite the lopsided 24-0 score, it was a good experience for both teams. Emory used the opportunity to work on all aspects of their game against a non-MCLA opponent while Mercer was happy to get in one of their first games of their new organization. The Eagles’ defense was able to shutdown the Bears offense, resulting in a shutout. On the other side of the field, the scoring came from all around with 14 players chalking up points. Both teams showed great sportsmanship during the blowout with few penalties and no injuries to report. Ranked #1 in the Southeastern Lacrosse Conference, the Eagles squad has a National Championship in mind. The team was featured in the January 23 edition of the Emory Wheel; the story can be read online at: http://emorywheel.com/detail.php?n=26404

Emory Club Sports Nets Funding Increase for 2009-10: The executive officers of the Club Sports Council are pleased to announce that after extensive negotiations with SGA University Wide Divisions, it has secured an annual budgetary increase of approximately $21,000. The SGA Legislature has passed a bill mandating that a new Student Activity Fee split will go into effect for the upcoming academic year. The funds will be put towards stabilizing growth in the division.
Emory University Team Physician Earns Award

Emory University team physician Dr. Michael Huey has been named as the recipient of the 2008 Jack C. Hughston Physician of the Year Award. The honor is bestowed by the Georgia Athletic Training Association (GATA).

The Hughston Award is presented annually to an individual who has served as a physician for five or more years in the State of Georgia. In addition, the physician must have worked with a certified athletic trainer providing care for Georgia’s athletes while graciously giving of their time and service.

Dr. Huey has provided medical attention to countless Emory student-athletes since 2002. In addition, he is the Executive Director of Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services and a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Family and Preventive Medicine.

Prior to his arrival to Emory, Huey served as Director of Student Health Care and Associate Clinical Professor of Community Health and Family Practice at the University of Florida from 1994-2002. While at UF, he was one of the team physicians for the institution’s intercollegiate athletic department. From 1991-94, Huey was the Director of Student Health Services and Associate Team Physician at California State University at Bakersfield.

Dr. Jack C. Hughston (1917-2004) is regarded as a pioneer and visionary in the field of sports medicine. He founded the Hughston Clinic in 1949, where the general public as well as famous athletes were treated. In 1984, the Hughston Sports Medicine Hospital opened in Columbus, GA, the first facility of its kind in the nation. He also created the Hughston Sports Medicine Foundation, designed to promote advances in sports medicine and orthopaedics. He wrote several books and numerous scientific articles that were published in medical journals. He was well known for his work in treating knee injuries and for being the first to establish postdoctoral fellowships in sports medicine.

Dr. Huey was presented with the award on January 17 at the GATA Annual Symposium in Peachtree City, GA.
Barkley Forum

Emory debate teams turned in powerful performances at winter break national tournaments in California and Texas. Highlights: the senior team of Chipp Schwab and Nick Miller finished 2nd at California State University-Fullerton while sophomore team Stephen Weil and Matt Senghas finished 3rd at the University of Southern California. The sophomore team of Ana Nicolic and Ovais Inamullah finished in 6th at both tournaments. At the University of North Texas the team of Megan Swenson and Scott Movens finished second, and at University of Texas-Dallas Kirk Gibson and James Hamraie finished 8th.

The January 22 Annual Awards Dinner of the Barkley Forum honored Atlanta Falcons owner and philanthropist, Arthur Blank, as the Georgia Speaker of the Year for his support of Forum urban debate programs. Dr. Ford hosted a reception for Mr. Blank prior to the event, and President Wagner made welcoming remarks. Campus Life Board of Trustees chair, Laura Hardman and Campus Life CFO Eric Bymaster were honored as “Friends of Forensics.” The event was attended by 150 Emory students, staff, and faculty, and guests of the Barkley Forum for High Schools (BFHS) tournament from Urban Debate Leagues in New Jersey, New York, Baltimore, and Chicago and representatives from high schools in 10 states.

The 54th BFHS was held January 23-25 for over 1,000 high school students and teachers from 30 states. The Westminster Schools of Atlanta defeated St. Mark’s School of Texas in the final round of policy debate.

Winners in other events were from Florida, Minnesota, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. In the six-hour final round of the Student Congress event, we were fortunate to have a particularly distinguished judging panel: former congressman and Libertarian Party presidential candidate, Bob Barr (pictured on left); former Chief of Staff to Governor Roy Barnes, Bobby Kahn, and Chief Legal Counsel to the Democratic Party of Georgia, Michael Jablonski.

Dobbs University Center Operations

DUC Sponsors 2009 International Coffee Hour

On Friday January 23, the DUC hosted our first International Coffee Hour. The program was sponsored by Vice Provost Ozzie Harris and the Office of Community and Diversity. The turnout was great, bringing in almost as many participants as ISSP has in the past. We are looking to gain momentum with each occurrence. Vice Provost Harris did an excellent job of connecting international students with each other and his office. We are excited about teaming up with our coming sponsors to continue to address the “Community Building” part of our mission.
Office of LGBT Life

Michael Shutt, Director of the Office of LGBT Life, was elected to the Executive Board of the Consortium of Higher Education LGBT Professionals last night. Michael will represent Emory University as the Regions Chair. The Regions Working Group coordinates the diverse regional networks of Consortium member institutions. The working group is made up of regional representatives and works to ensure member and non-member institutions have access to continuing professional development, education, advocacy, and support resources.

January has been a very busy month at the Office of LGBT Life. Here is a glimpse at what's going on in DUC 246E:

Capacity Building in 2009
The Office of LGBT Life is working to improve the capacity of the LGBT community at Emory to provide an inclusive learning, living, and working environment. To that end, the Office is working both on an internal examination of its programs and services, and is facilitating similar examinations with other LGBT-related offices, programs, and organizations on campus. Here are a few examples of how we are moving forward:

GALA Fundraiser
GALA (Gay and Lesbian Alumni) hosted its annual fundraiser for the Office of LGBT Life on Friday, January 23. This annual event brings together alumni, students, and friends of the Office. Gifts from this event will be used for the annual Pride Awards, which will be held on March 2.

Office of LGBT Life Advisory Committee
The Office of LGBT Life hosted the first meeting of its Advisory Committee on January 27. Members of the Advisory Committee include students, faculty, staff, and alumnus/i.

The purpose of this Committee is to:

Provide advice and input on the Office’s Director and staff on planning, implementation, and operational aspects of the Office;

Ensure that the overall planning and implementation is consistent with the missions of Emory University and Emory University’s Division of Campus Life;

Facilitate communication between the University community and the Office, and serve as ambassadors for the Office’s goals and objectives. The Director of the Office may seek advice from the Advisory Committee on various matters.
Office of LGBT Life (continued)

LGBT Leaders Groups
The Office of LGBT Life called together all LGBT-related organizations, programs and offices on campus in November. This was the first time that all eleven organizations, programs and offices had been brought together. Outcomes of this meeting included the creation of the LGBT Leaders Listserv, many new connections between the leaders, and the establishment of a standing LGBT Leaders meeting. The group met again on January 21. The members continued to discuss ways to improve communication and work together to plan programs on campus. They will be working together to host an end of the year picnic and provide visibility of the Emory LGBT community at Atlanta Pride in June and Black Pride in September.

Graduate Student Organizations Retreat
The Office of LGBT Life invited all LGBT graduate student groups on campus to attend an evening networking and planning session in February. There are currently five LGBT graduate student groups on campus. These groups have very little connection with each other currently. The purpose of this session is to increase support, collaboration and communication among the groups. The Office of LGBT is providing additional web support for these groups.

Emory Pride Retreat
Michael Shutt facilitated an all-day retreat for Emory Pride on Sunday, January 25. The current and past executive board members, as well as other members of the organization, came together to discuss the past, present, and future of the organization. The retreat included team building activities, an examination of the constitution and executive positions, and a thorough discussion on the purpose of the group. Emory Pride will be presenting a new mission, changes in executive board positions to clarify their roles, and ideas for their vision for the future at their next meeting. Emory Pride meets every Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. in the Office of LGBT Life, 246E DUC.

Out & Equal-Atlanta chooses Emory University as a "Hero Among Us"
Emory was honored as one of Out & Equal-Atlanta’s first ever “Heroes Among Us.” Out & Equal believes in all of those who fight for equality in the workplace during this period of change. As a “Hero Among Us,” Out & Equal will feature Emory in its first newsletter launched in January 2009. Emory was chosen among tens of thousands of LGBT and ally employees, non-profits, small/medium businesses, educational institutions, governmental entities and corporations in Atlanta.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Black History Month Film Screenings
February 23
“Brother Outsider-The Life of Bayard Rustin” Profiles the life of ‘60s civil rights activist and gay man Bayard Rustin. Harland Cinema (Dobbs University Center). Co-sponsored by the DUC. 5:30 p.m.

February 28
“Portrait of Jason” White Hall Room 205. Landmark 1967 film about a gay African-American cabaret performer. Co-sponsored by Frequent Small Meals. 8:00 p.m.

Pride Awards Reception
Save the date for the annual Pride Awards Reception on Monday, March 2 at 6:30 p.m. at the Miller-Ward Alumni House. The reception is co-sponsored by the Office, the President’s Commission on LGBT Concerns and GALA. There is no charge to attend, but please RSVP to lgbt@emory.edu. In addition to honoring 2009 graduates with lavender diplomas, the reception will honor the following (please click on the links for more information and to submit nominees)
*Studies in Sexuality Essay Contest (submission deadline February 13)

*The Chesnut Award (submission deadline February 9)

*The inaugural presentation of the GALA Leadership Award
News from the Staff Development Committee....

The Staff Development Committee jumpstarted the spring semester with the first of its monthly Lunch & Learn Series seminars. On January 22, Kim White from the Emory Alliance Credit Union and Robin Huskey from FSAP presented "Build A Basic Budget: A Five-Step Spending Plan." Fifteen Campus Life employees attended the seminar, which included lively discussions on setting financial goals, identifying spending leaks and tracking your money. Participants were given information on how to develop realistic budgets and tips on how to stick to those plans.

The next Lunch & Learn seminar will be held February 19 at noon in the Few Hall Demonstration Kitchen. Called "Eating Locally, Seasonally and Sustainably on a Budget," the seminar will be led by Julie Shaffer, Emory’s Sustainable Food Service Education Coordinator. Julie is founder and leader of Slow Food Atlanta, a non-profit, educational organization dedicated to sustainable food issues, and she is southeastern regional governor of Slow Food USA. She is also involved in the Atlanta Local Food Initiative and Georgia Organics. Please RSVP by February 16 to julie.shaffer@emory.edu.

The Lunch & Learn Series continues on March 19 with "Stress Reduction" featuring Shirley Banks and concludes April 16 with “Responding to Students in Distress” with Heather Zesiger. Locations TBD

The Book Club will meet over Spring Break (March 12 from 12-1). This semester's book is “A Hope in the Unseen” by Ron Suskind. If you would like to join the Book Club, please email Lauren Hayden at lvhayde@emory.edu. Location TBD

For more information on any Staff Development Committee events, contact Elizabeth Elkins at eelkins@emory.edu.

Office of Multicultural Programs & Services

THE Playwriting Center of Theater Emory, Transforming Community Project, Emory Founder's Week, and the Office of Multicultural Programs & Services present

A staged reading in celebration of Emory's Founder's Week

BONES
By Amy Cook & Zoe Fine, C'09, contributing writer
Directed by Ken Hornbeck

Using college mascot Lord Dooley as a springboard into the culture of the university, BONES discusses the history and present state of race on the Emory campus—from skin to skeleton—telling stories about living bones and those deeply buried.

Wednesday, February 4, 2009
Pre-reception at 6:30 p.m.
Staged reading at 7:00 p.m.
Performing Arts Studio, 1804 North Decatur Road, Emory University

RESERVATIONS RECOMMENDED
(404) 727-5050 or boxoffice@emory.edu

FREE!
Official Calendar of Events

Change We Can Believe In!

From Obama’s Speech on Race
This was one of the tasks we set forth at the beginning of this presidential campaign, to recreate the long march of those who came before us. A march for a more just, more equal, more free, more caring, and more prosperous America. I have run for president at this moment in history because I believe deeply that we cannot solve the challenges of our time unless we solve them together, unless we perfect our union. It’s my understanding that we may have different ideas, but we hold common hope that we may not look the same and may not have come from the same place, but we all want to move in the same direction towards a better future for our children and our grandchildren. This belief comes from my abiding faith in the decency and goodness of the American people.

—Barack Obama

2009 Black History Month Calendar

Feb. 2nd
Black History Month Kickoff: The Black Student Alliance, Synergy & Nambake, Asbury Circle, Rain Location: DUC

Feb. 3rd
Experience Race at Emory: Panel discussion “The Cost of Hope: No Small Change,” 6:30 pm Cannon Chapel, Reception, Sponsor:Transforming Community Project

Feb. 4th
Blazing Trails: Discussion on race by Marshya Yeargin-Alsip, first Black female graduate of Emory Medical School, 6pm, WH 102, Sponsor: Center for Science Education

Feb. 7th
Unlocking the Key to the City- Atlanta’s Black History. Registration starts at 1 pm, scavenger hunt until 4 pm. Food at the BSA House. Sponsors: Black Student Alliance House and Downtown Atlanta

Feb. 10th
Black in America: Film Series. 5 pm, Harland Cinema. Sponsors: Multicultural Programs, CNN and Transforming Community Project

Do the Right Thing. Film, 7 pm. White Hall 206. Sponsor: Brotherhood of Afrocentric Men

Feb. 11th
Black in America. Film Series. 5 pm. Winship Ballroom, Sponsors: Multicultural Programs, CNN and Transforming Community Project

Worship Service presenting the Anna Julia Cooper Lecture Series. 11 am room 232, Speaker TBA. Discussion and reception following, Cannon Chapel room 100, Sponsor: Black Church Studies

Feb. 12th
NAACP Turns 100: Cake Cutting & Founders’ Day Celebration. Faculty and students speak out on our Past & the Potential Future of Activism for our Future. All invited. 9:30 am. Location: TBA

Feb. 14th
A Walk Through “Sweet Auburn”. A morning of history, then lunch at Mary Mac’s! A fun way to see historic Atlanta. Carpool at 9:30 am DUC parking lot. LearnLink Arbame Cavers

Feb. 18th
“No” a rape film documentary on this international crisis. 8:30 pm. White Hall 110, Sponsors: Student Health Services, Counseling Services, and Center for Women

Feb. 19th
Black in America, Discussion. Moderated by Provost Earl Lewis, 5 pm, Room 130 Commons, Ethics Bldg, Sponsors: Office of Multicultural Programs, CNN, and Transforming Community Project

Feb. 23rd

Feb. 25th
Brother Outsider. Film. Life of Bayard Rustin whose nonviolent practices inspired Mahatma Gandhi, helped shape Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. 5:30 pm. Harland Cinema. Sponsor: LGBT Life

Feb. 24th
ASA Pays Tribute. Film and Performance. Honoring those who contributed to the advancement of Black People. African Student Association

Feb. 27th
Black History Month Showcase. Honoring the Voices of Black Women. 7 pm. Harland Cinema. Sponsors: Ngambike, Zun and the Dark Tower Project

Feb. 28th
Black History Month Ball and Black Star Release Party. 10 pm—2 am, Location: TBA. Sponsor: The Black Student Alliance
Are YOU Residence Life?
Do you know students who have strong leadership skills? The Office of Residence Life & Housing is accepting applications for the following positions: Sophomore Advisor, Resident Advisor, Residence Hall Director Fellow and Residence Hall Director. University Conferences is also hiring for Summer 2009. We are looking for a “few good men” and women! Please send interested applicants to the Job Recruitment website at www.emory.edu/HOUSING/JOBS. Questions may be directed to Roger Montiel (roger.montiel@emory.edu), Kayla Hamilton (Kayla.hamilton@emory.edu), or Michelle Wu (emwu@emory.edu).

Citizenship FYE
The Citizenship FYE program hosted a dinner with Dean Robert Paul (Emory College of Arts & Sciences) on Thursday, January 22. Dean Paul spoke to our first-year students about various topics ranging from his work with the Dalai Lama to the new pre-major advising system, while encouraging our students to take advantage of Emory’s strong liberal arts program and to enjoy their college years.

Housing Selection
Housing Selection for the 2009-2010 academic year has begun! Students may fill out their housing applications at http://myhousing.emory.edu. Detailed information about the selection process may be found at our website: www.emory.edu/HOUSING/SELECTION, or you may watch an information videocast on itunesU. Please contact housing-help@learnlink.emory.edu with any questions you may have about the process.

What are you celebrating?
Congratulations to our Residence Life staff members who completed the Disney Marathon in January. Pictured below are our marathoners: Kathy Gordon, Dan Hootman, Jim Chung, Andrea Trinklein, Andy Wilson, Roger Montiel, and Judith Pannell. (See next page for a marathon exclusive story by Andrea Trinklein)
ANOTHER KIND OF STAFF DEVELOPMENT – THE MAGICAL FINISH LINE
By Andrea Trinklein

Why not train for a road race? Emory makes it easy for you to register and participate in the Peachtree, where you can spend the 4th of July with 50,000 of your closest friends. So you can complete a 10K with your staff colleagues in Residence Life and Housing and you can have fun. What’s next?

Human Resources encourages you to take the stairs, get a pedometer, participate in a fitness routine, reduce the stress in your life, and be a part of healthy Emory. Running can be contagious, it can help you think, it can even be a problem-solving and decision-making strategy. So when your colleagues say, “I signed up for a race. Are you going to sign up?” it soon becomes more than peer pressure. This is what happened in Residence Life and Housing and before we knew it we had signed up to run a marathon.

This led to numerous fun lunch time discussions about training schedules, Saturday long runs, and getting fitted for shoes. Training schedules were distributed by the more experienced marathon runners. It soon became apparent that some of us liked to talk more about training to run, than running. Really, how important are those 20 mile training runs? Just ask us now!

On January 11, seven members of the Residence Life and Housing staff crossed the finish line of the Disney Marathon in Orlando, Florida. Some additional accomplishments worth noting: Dan Hootman and Andy Wilson completed the “Goofy Challenge” which means they ran the ½ marathon on Saturday the 10th, and then ran the full marathon on Sunday for a total of 39.3 miles. Some of us think they did it just to get three medals. Kathy Gordon completed her 4th marathon. Roger Montiel, Judith Pannell, Jim Chung, and Andrea Trinklein all completed their first marathon.

Way to go Residence Life and Housing staff!

Student Health & Counseling Services

Congratulations to our Student Health physicians!
The Georgia Athletic Trainers’ Association (GATA) has named
Dr. Michael Huey Physician of the Year for 2008.

Dr. Michael Allan scored a perfect 800 of 800 on his Internal Medicine Boards. This places him in the top 0.15% of board-certified Internists in the nation.

Kudos to Dr. Mark McLeod, who with Dr. John Ford, Dr. Eisen, Dr.
Kushner and others wrote the article An Integrated Approach to Addressing Addiction and Depression in College Students in the most recent issue of the Journal of American College Health.

Check Out the Student Health and Counseling Center’s iTunesU offerings.

Go to itunes.emory.edu and click on exclusively Emory. You will need your regular log-in information. Then click on Campus Life and Health Promotion. You will find a short video about our services under About Student Health and Counseling, and Dr. McLeod posted a video for faculty about helping a student in distress. There are more audio and video files under each category: Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs, Sexual Health and Sexual Assault and Diseases and Conditions.
NEW FOR STUDENTS!
Going Live in early February!
Your Patient Portal=online access, 24-7 to:

- Appointment Scheduling
- Secure messages to healthcare staff
- Prescriptions
- Patient account information

https://www.shspnc.emory.edu
http://studenthealth.emory.edu

Mini-Course begins 2/19/09

I ♥ My Vagina

Description

In this women-only course, we will learn about things that are left out of sex education classes. We will connect up-to-date scientific information with our own values to develop a new way of living in the body as a sexual person. Each person’s perspective and privacy will be valued as we learn from each other. The material covered in this class applies to all women who want to learn more about their sexuality.

Contact

Shirley M. Banks, Health Educator and Certified Sexuality Counselor, Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services, 404-727-7312, shirley.banks@emory.edu

Mini-Course begins 1/28/09

Healthy Relationships

Description

This mini course explores different kinds of healthy relationships and social expectations on campus in order to prepare students to make positive and safer choices regarding interpersonal relationships, including dating, friendship, working, and sexual relationships. Students will meet once weekly for three weeks. Each session will be ninety minutes.

Contact

Brett Page (btpage@emory.edu) to reserve your space today!

Mini-Course begins 2/16/09

Party Well

Description

This mini-course explores the party scene on campus. We appreciate people’s need to be together having fun, and we recognize that parties can contribute to individual development. In this class we will explore ways to reduce risk of problems that students sometimes face on the party scene. Students will meet once weekly for three weeks. Each session will be ninety minutes.

Contact

Brett Page (btpage@emory.edu) to reserve your space today!
The Office of Student Leadership and Service is excited to be launching and updating a series of leadership programs for the Spring of 2009. Please encourage your students to apply for these great programs, and let anyone in our office know if you need emails or flyers to forward to your students.

Leadership Programs

- The Emory University L.E.A.D. Team, an acronym for Leadership Education And Development, is a new program offered by the Office of Student Leadership and Service. Selected during the spring of each year, the team consists of approximately 20 Emory University sophomores, juniors or seniors who serve as the student outreach arm of the Office of Student Leadership and Service. OSLS is very excited to launch this program beginning August, 2009. Please feel free to request programs and leadership development series for students with whom you work. From R.A.s to student organizations to Greek Life, the entire Emory community will be able to call on the L.E.A.D. Team to provide quality leadership presentations and workshops for students. It is our feeling that students helping students enhances leadership skills.

- The L.E.A.D Team will also serve as mentors to younger students (predominately freshmen) through the Emerging Leader Experience (ELE) also offered through our office. This program was formerly known as the Emerging Leaders Retreat, but it has been updated and strengthened. Members of the L.E.A.D Team will gain valuable first-hand experience in planning a leadership retreat, training younger students on topics surrounding leadership, and mentoring younger students as they begin the process of getting involved in the Emory community. Please encourage your students to apply by visiting www.osls.emory.edu/lead for more information and an application.

- The former Emerging Leaders Retreat has now been redesigned into a year-long program for freshmen and any other students interested in gaining basic leadership skills. Renamed The Emerging Leaders Experience, students will be recruited over the summer and first month of school to become a part of this program. The Office of Student Leadership and Service will be looking for 75 new students. More information about this program will be included in a future Campus Life newsletter.

- LeaderShape 2009 applications are now available. Do you know a student who has a lot of passion about a specific cause or are looking for a meaningful way to focus their energy? Encourage them to apply for a scholarship to attend the LeaderShape Institute! The LeaderShape Institute is an interactive, energizing, and unique experience that builds leadership skills no other program can match. And since 1986, over 20,000 participants from all over the world have graduated from the program. At the LeaderShape Institute, students will learn how to create a vision and plan of action to implement when they return to Emory. The Office of Student Leadership & Service wants to send 2 current 1st or 2nd year Emory College students who actually want to make a difference in Emory's community and beyond. This is a great program, and more information is available on our website. The program lasts for one week during the summer, but the students can select which week they go which usually allows them to go abroad, have internships or take summer classes.
Office of Student Leadership & Service (continued)

Advisors Workshops
The Office of Student Leadership and Service has hosted two series of Advisors workshops that have been successful with student organization advisors. Advising 101, Event Planning 101, and Understanding Your Organizations Finances have been three such workshops that have been attended by over 50 advisors from around campus. OLSL is planning a Liability Workshop for Advisors scheduled for later this spring!

Orientation Leaders
Tanya Willard, Assistant Director, Office of Student Leadership and Service, is currently involved in interviewing over 170 applicants for the position of Orientation Leaders for Fall 2009. These students will be charged with assisting, not only with Orientation but also working during Parents Weekend, which will be a part of the Division of Campus Life next year.

Student Programming Council (SPC)
Matt Garrett, Assistant Director of the Office of Student Leadership and Service, and The Student Programming Council are gearing up for a busy spring semester of events. The first of SPC's two February events is the Pink Tie Affair, a dance, in conjunction with the Varsity Athletes Council, to promote Breast Cancer Awareness. This event will be held on Friday, February 13, from 9:00pm until midnight in the Cox Hall Ballroom. The second event is the Emory Belmont Music Festival which will occur on Saturday, February 28th. More information on all these events and Dooley's Week can be found at www.students.emory.edu/SPC.

Kieu Thu Bui, a student staff member of Volunteer Emory, was recently featured in Atlanta INtown magazine. She was nominated for one of the "20 under 20" students doing great things in the Atlanta community awards. Harold McNaron, VE director, nominated her. http://www.atlantaintownpaper.com/
Volunteer Emory’s Events for February

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start</th>
<th>End</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Time/Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2/4/2009</td>
<td>2/5/2009</td>
<td>Volunteer Fair</td>
<td>10 am-2 pm, DUC Coke Commons</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2/5/2009</td>
<td>2/5/2009</td>
<td>Volunteer Emory Orientation</td>
<td>6:30-7:30 pm, Harland Cinema</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2/15/2009</td>
<td>2/28/2009</td>
<td>Volunteer @ Shearith Israel Shelter</td>
<td>6:30 pm—6:30 am (overnight) confidential location</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2/23/2009</td>
<td>2/23/2009</td>
<td>Hunger &amp; Homelessness Awareness Week: Food Stamp simulation</td>
<td>7:00-8:00 pm, TBD</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2/25/2009</td>
<td>2/25/2009</td>
<td>Hunger &amp; Homelessness Awareness Week: Sandwich-making in the DUC</td>
<td>12:00 noon to 4:00 pm, DUC Coke Commons</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2/25/2009</td>
<td>2/25/2009</td>
<td>Hunger &amp; Homelessness Awareness Week: Hunger Banquet</td>
<td>6:30-8:00 pm, Winship Ballroom</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For more information, contact Harold McNaron, Director of Volunteer Emory, hmcnar2@emory.edu or phone: 404-727-6268