

- * correct style to AP
- * correct punctuation, spelling and grammatical mistakes
- * check place names
- * use dictionary, AP guide, and Bates directory as resources

Class of 1981

Katherine Baker is at home in Cambridge, Mass., with two boys (seven and 9).

"Having worked outside the home for years, this experience is so rewarding," she said. "Outdoor recreation, such as jogging, skating and skiing the slopes, are my favorite hobbies. We visited Great Britain last year: England, Scotland and Ireland. The experience peaked my interest in its history."... Patricia Blackburn is a fulltime district attorney in Suffolk County, serving as it's chief legal representative to indigent populations.... In Boxford, MA, Diana Dalheim is raising twin daughters, Zoe and Emily (3 1/2), with husband Donald. Their looking forward to moving into a new house South of town.... Rick and Mary Elder are doing fine and they're sons are now 15 and twelve. Life revolves around working (property management), running the home, the family and kid's activities. "Life is so busy!!!!" she reports. "Luckily, I have a bit of a flare for organization!"... Gary Gerlach is a Controller at a South Carolina firm, having earned his masters in Business Administration in 1980. He's a business appraiser of closely-held companies. "Have a nine-month-old-daughter, Sarah, who is trying her best to keep me young. Still participate in triathlons, & am actually running further each year. Sara comes along sometimes; she's a real trooper."

Gary reports losing his mother last year; the class sends its condolences... Ron

Hill wrote just after finishing sugaring in April in his newly constructed sugarhouse. "My wife, Pixie, and children Ron (11) and Katie (8) enjoyed the season. This sugarhouse is special because we cleared the spot in the forest, milled out the lumber with a borrowed mill from the very trees we had dropped, and built it ourselves (with a little help from friends)!. This years project is a small horse barn. Old news: In December, 2000, the family and I crashed for a week with Professor of Biology, Will Ambrose, and his family while they were on sabbatical in Oslo, Sweden. I left Lee Auto Malls after a decade as marketing director and founded an advertising agency, Wentworth Advertising, now in it's 4th year."... Nancy Higgins left Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette on Dec. 3 and began work at her startup, Marathon Capital Group, on January 2nd. She writes: "It has been an adventure, to say the least, along with starting the new business, I sold and bought a new home close to the Bunker Hill Monument and the Constitution; if your in the the neighborhood, give a call.".... Betsy Jacobs has lead the way in technology for functional skills assessments by introducing a handheld computer format of her JIFS (www.betterfunctioning.com). "Visitors are welcome to view the buffalo next door from our hot tub!"... Walter Horeman was elected Mayor of Rochester, N.H., after serving as city council member for six years and recently as deputy mayor. He reports the birth of a son, Cobee, on April 31st.... Sue Lumina moved back to Gloucester and is working with the Yankee Fleet, fishing and whale watching. Shes "having a ball," taking a local Civilian Police Academy course. "Bet you never thought a alumnus of Bates would be doing this!"..... Bob MacKinnon has been with the 99 Restaurant-Pubs for 14 years, since 1978, and is now currently a general managing partner.

He was preparing for a June wedding to fiance Judy Morgan.... Spyro Mitrokostas is Executive Director of Cape Cod Technology Council Inc. He and Krista live in Brewster Massachusetts.... Jean Monahan adopted a daughter, Lilah Violet. "My mother and I flew to Phnom Pen last May to get her."... Bob Muldoon had a story in the "My Turn" column in Newsweek, Feb. 30, 2002, that mentioned Bate's history.... Ed Stanley writes, "Having retracted from the world of aircraft parts with my brother, I'll will have earned my M.A. in arts in preservation studies from Boston University in May 2002. Then on to a career in historic preservation, hopefully here in the seven-state New England area."

KEY

Class of 1981

Katherine Baker is at home in Cambridge, Mass., with two boys (seven¹ ages always arabic in AP and 9). "Having worked outside the home for years, this experience² misplaced modifier is so rewarding," she said. "Outdoor recreation, such as jogging, skating and skiing³ spelling the slopes, are⁴ verb agreement with "recreation" my favorite hobbies. We visited Great Britain last year: England, Scotland and Ireland⁵ Ireland is not part of Great Britain . The experience peaked⁶ piqued my interest in its history." ... Patricia Blackburn is a fulltime⁷ full-time district attorney⁸ spelling in Suffolk County, serving as it's⁹ its chief legal representative to indigent¹⁰ spelling populations.... In Boxford, MA,¹¹ AP style Mass., Diana Dalheim is raising twin daughters, Zoe and Emily (3 1/2), with husband Donald. Their¹² They're looking forward to moving into a new house South¹³ south of town.... Rick and Mary Elder are doing fine and they're¹⁴ their sons are now 15 and twelve¹⁵ should be arabic . Life revolves around working (property management), running the home, the family and kid's¹⁶ kids' activities. "Life is so busy!!!!¹⁷ one exclamation point" she reports. "Luckily, I have a bit of a flare¹⁸ flair for organization!"... Gary Gerlach is a Controller¹⁹ lowercase c at a South Carolina firm, having earned his masters²⁰ master's in Business Administration²¹ lowercase b and a in 1980. He's a business appraiser of closely-held²² no hyphen companies. "Have a nine²³ ages always arabic -month-old-daughter, Sarah, who is trying her best to keep me young. Still participate in triathlons, &²³ delete comma and never use ampersand for "and" am actually running further²⁴ farther each year. Sara²⁵

"Sarah" with h above comes along sometimes; she's a real trooper²⁶ trouper." Gary reports losing²⁷ losing his mother last year; the class sends its condolences... Ron Hill wrote just after finishing sugaring in April in his newly constructed sugarhouse. "My wife, Pixie, and children Ron (11) and Katie (8) enjoyed the season. This sugarhouse²⁸ extra u is special because we cleared the spot in the forest, milled out the lumber with a borrowed mill from the very trees we had dropped, and built it ourselves (with a little help from friends)!²⁹ put exclamation inside parens. This years³⁰ year's project is a small horse barn. Old news: In December,³¹ no comma 2000, the family and I crashed for a week with Professor of Biology,³² should not be comma Will Ambrose³³ should not be comma, and his family while they were on sabbatical in Oslo, Sweden³³ Oslo is in Norway. I left Lee Auto Malls after a decade as marketing director and founded an advertising agency, Wentworth Advertising, now in it's³⁴ its 4th³⁵ spell out year."... Nancy Higgins left Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette on Dec. 3 and began work at her startup, Marathon Capital Group, on January 2nd³⁶ AP style Jan. 2. She writes: "It has been an adventure, to say the least,³⁷ run-on sentence along with starting the new business, I sold and bought a new home close to the Bunker Hill Monument and the Constitution; if your³⁸ you're in the the³⁹ extra "the" neighborhood, give a call.".... Betsy Jacobs has lead⁴⁰ led the way in technology for functional skills assessments by introducing a handheld computer format of her JIFS (www.betterfunctioning.com). "Visitors are welcome to view the buffalo next door from our hot tub!"... Walter Horeman was elected Mayor⁴¹ lowercase m of Rochester, N.H., after serving as city council member for six years and recently as deputy mayor. He reports the birth of a son, Cobee, on April 31st⁴²

AP style "31" and April has only 30 days Sue Lumina moved back to Gloucester and is working with the Yankee Fleet, fishing and whale watching. Shes⁴³ She's "having a ball," taking a local Civilian Police Academy course. "Bet you never thought a alumnus⁴⁴ an alumna of Bates would be doing this!"... Bob MacKinnon has been with the 99 Restaurant-Pubs for 14 years, since 1978⁴⁵ wrong math: 1978 doesn't agree with 14 years, and is now currently⁴⁶ redundant a general managing partner. He was preparing for a June wedding to fiance⁴⁷ fiancée Judy Morgan.... Spyro Mitrokostas is Executive Director⁴⁸ lowercase title of Cape Cod Technology Council Inc. He and Krista live in Brewster Massachusetts⁴⁹ AP: Brewster, Mass. Jean Monahan adopted a daughter, Lilah Violet. "My mother and I flew to Phnom Pen⁵⁰ Phnom Penh last May to get her."... Bob Muldoon had a story in the "My Turn" column in Newsweek, Feb. 30⁵¹ February never has 30 days, 2002, that mentioned Bate's⁵² Bates' history.... Ed Stanley writes, "Having retracted⁵³ probably wrong word from the world of aircraft parts with my brother, I'll will⁵⁴ extra word have earned my M.A. in arts⁵⁵ "in arts" redundant in preservation studies from Boston University in May 2002. Then on to a career in historic preservation, hopefully⁵⁶ some still cringe at "hopefully" here in the seven-state⁵⁶ six states in New England New England area."