

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Center for Women
at Emory

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

MARCH 2010 at Emory University

Zainab Salbi

March 1

Zainab Salbi, cofounder and president of Women for Women International, will present the keynote address for Women's History Month at Emory—4 p.m., Emory Law School, Tull Auditorium. Women for Women International has supported more than 120,000 women survivors of war across the globe.

Sponsored by Center for Women Ali P. Crown Women in Culture and Society Endowment, Department of Women's Studies Jessica Glasser Memorial Lecture, President's Commission on the Status of Women at Emory, Institute of Developing Nations, the Laney Graduate School, Office of Community and Diversity, and Office of the Provost, Luminaries Series

March 2

Eighteenth-Annual Pride Awards—6:30 p.m., Miller-Ward Alumni House. Sponsored by Emory Gay and Lesbian Alumni (GALA) and Office of LGBT Life

March 4

"We Are Not What We Seem": The Roles of Mary McLeod Bethune, Eleanor Roosevelt, Edith Sampson, and Mary Pillsbury Lord in the Quest for African Americans' Human Rights," presented by Carol Anderson—Noon, 207 Candler Library, Department of African American Studies. This is a brown-bag lunch event; snacks and refreshments will be served. Sponsored by Department of African American Studies

Pride Banquet

March 15-17

The Vagina Monologues, a play by Eve Ensler—doors open at 7 p.m.; show time, 8 p.m., Performing Arts Studio, 1804 North Decatur Road, 2nd floor. Sponsored by V-day Emory, Feminists in Action, and Center for Women

March 17

Women's Health and Wellness seminar "Eating the Best for Less" will discuss tips for finding healthier choices and better prices—Noon-1 p.m., Center for Women. Sponsored by Faculty Staff Assistance Program and Center for Women

"HERS at Home" will debut Emory HERS alumnae who will share experiences and answer the question: What do women in higher education need to know in order to succeed?—4:15-5:30 p.m., Jones Room, Woodruff Library. Mary Bullock will be the special guest speaker for this kickoff event. Sponsored by President's Commission on the Status of Women at Emory

Feminists Founders' Reading and Book Signing by Novelist Susan Choi—6:30 p.m., Jones Room, 311 Woodruff Library. Sponsored by Department of Women's Studies, Creative Writing Program, and Center for Women

March 18

Dance Presentation by the Dance Program, which will host a compelling array of dance works celebrating Women's History Month—Noon, Reception Hall, Michael C. Carlos Museum. Sponsored by Emory Dance Program, Michael C. Carlos Museum, and Center for Women

Colloquium with Susan Choi—2:30-3:30 p.m., Kemp-Malone Library, N301 Callaway Center. Sponsored by Department of Women's Studies, Creative Writing Program, and Center for Women

March 19

Women's Herstory Month Concert featuring cross-cultural performances by Khalilah Ali (rapper,) Kelly Loves Jones (folk singer,) Queen Sheba (spoken word artist), Taal Soul, and ACES—10 p.m., Harland Cinema. If you are interested in performing, contact Jillian Ford at jford@emory.edu. Sponsored by Feminists in Action and Emory's Fridays at 10

V-day Emory

Dance Program

Susan Choi

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT

<http://www.womenscenter.emory.edu>

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Center for Women
at Emory

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

at Emory University

MARCH 2010

Youth for African Progress Conference

Global and Contemporary Perspectives on International Women

The Thirteenth-Annual National Black Herstory Awards Banquet. Delores Aldridge is one of the women being celebrated.

Dorothy Roberts

Char Soloman

March 20

Youth for African Progress Conference—10 a.m.–3 p.m., Goizueta Business School, Room 201. Workshops titled “Women’s Movement in Africa and the Victories of Women on the Continent” and “Conflicts in the Democratic Republic of Congo” will discuss how women have been treated over time in various regions of the continent and how modernization has evolved the role of women in government, politics, and the public sector. A special focus of the workshops will be on how young women can be active in the continued progress of the continent.
Sponsored by African Student Association and Center for Women

March 21

University Worship, Women’s History Month Sunday Celebration with Bobbi Patterson and music by Emory’s euphonium players—11 a.m., Cannon Chapel.
Sponsored by Center for Women and Office of the Dean of the Chapel and Religious Life

March 22

“Manufacturing Entrepreneurs: The Grameen Bank, Women, and Microfinance in Bangladesh,” a talk by Lamia Karim, anthropologist from the University of Oregon—Eugene—4:00 p.m., Jones Room, Woodruff Library.
Sponsored by Department of Anthropology, Department of Women’s Studies, and Development Studies Program

March 24

“A Brief History of Women’s Urology: It’s About Time! It’s About Sex,” with Jenelle Foote, clinical instructor of urology and practicing urologist at Emory University Hospital Midtown—7:30–8 a.m., School of Medicine, Room 170A.
Sponsored by School of Medicine Office of Faculty and Staff Development

March 25

“Global and Contemporary Perspectives on International Women,” a student panel discussion—6–7:30 p.m., Dobbs University Center, Room 362. This is a multimedia presentation and panel discussion on women’s issues and gender roles in different countries presented by undergraduates who have studied abroad and international students.
Sponsored by Center for Women and Office of Multicultural Programs and Services

March 26

The Thirteenth-Annual National Black Herstory Conference, “Empowering Our Communities: Self-Determined, Unified, Resourceful, and Educated”—2–7 p.m., Whitehead Biomedical Research Building Auditorium, Emory University. Free admission. For more information, call Mozella Galloway at 404.712.9674 or visit www.blackherstory.org.
Sponsored by National Black Herstory Task Force

March 27

The Thirteenth-Annual National Black Herstory Awards Banquet—6:30 p.m., the Loudermilk Center Ballroom, 40 Courtland Street at Peachtree Center. This year’s banquet celebrates the legacies of Delores Aldridge, the late Mrs. Frances Pauley, Gwendolyn Keys-Fleming, M. Bahati Kuumba, John Hope Franklin, Twanda Black, and others. Tickets can be purchased at www.ticketalternative.com/Events/9904.aspx. For more information, call Sheila Worthy at 404.379.5887 or visit www.blackherstory.org.
Sponsored by National Black Herstory Task Force

March 29

“Race and the New Biocitizen,” a talk by Dorothy Roberts, professor, Law School and Department of African American Studies and Sociology, Northwestern University—Emory Law School, Tull Auditorium. Reception and book signing to follow.
Sponsored by Emory’s Race and Difference Initiative

March 31

“A Woman in a Man’s Club: The Life of Maya Archaeologist Tatiana Proskouriakoff”—7 p.m., Michael C. Carlos Museum. Biographer Char Soloman will give this illustrated lecture based on her biography of Proskouriakoff who, during her fifty-year career, went from being a talented artist who documented ancient American archaeological sites to a pioneering scholar of the Maya language. A book signing will follow the event.
Sponsored by Michael C. Carlos Museum

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT

<http://www.womenscenter.emory.edu>