Finding Balance with Emory WorkLife Resource Center

Summer Camp

Believe it or not, enrollment for some summer camps has already begun for 2009! Emory is working hard to bring you accurate and reliable information to help you find the best summer camp programs for your children. We are providing a summer camp directory and workshop, as well as hosting InfoStops. Dependent Care Counselors from Brown Richards & Associates are available to work with you one-on-one to find a camp that's right for you and your children.

Summer Camp Workshop - Brown Richards & Associates will kick off this year's summer camp campaign with a workshop, "Selecting a Quality Summer Program." The workshop will be held on March 13, 2009 from 12 - 1PM in room 1.432 in the 1599 Clifton Building. If you are interested in attending this session, please contact Audrey Adelson at the Emory WorkLife Resource Center at 404-727-1261 or at audrey.adelson@emory.edu.

EMORY SUMMER STUDY ABROAD

In 2009, the Center for International Programs Abroad (CIPA) enters its 39th year of offering overseas undergraduate courses. Our goal is to provide a curriculum of outstanding academic quality for students who wish to study a foreign society, culture, or language. Study abroad can be a transformative life experience for students, and our programs offer a range of experiences across disciplines and around the world.

The majority of the programs are taught by Emory faculty, and costs are inclusive of tuition, accommodations, some meals daily, study abroad insurance, on-site transportation, cultural activities and field trips. Students earn direct Emory credits and grades. Financial aid packages are available for eligible students. Eligible students may apply their Courtesy scholarship toward the academic tuition portion of the cost.

Spaces are still available for many of the programs. A list of open programs is below, additional details can be found on the program pages of our website: www.cipa.emory.edu. Questions can be directed to Stacy Shade, Summer Study Abroad Coordinator, at sshade@emory.edu.
