

Financial Certificate for International Students

Graduate School, Emory University

If you are an international student applicant, you are required to certify that you have sufficient funds to cover your expenses while attending Emory University. Please note: This form must be completed by every international student seeking admission. This includes applicants who are awarded teaching assistantships, research assistantships, and other University awards. The admissions process is not complete until this form has been completed and returned. Visa documents are issued only when all admission procedures have been satisfied.

A current ESTIMATE of expenses for the 2007-2008 academic year (based on either a 9-month or a 12-months program) follows. Expenses in subsequent years will undoubtedly be higher.

* Required for all international students, unless they show proof of comparable coverage from another source.

 Does not include travel from home country.

 Costs incurred in paying utility and housing deposits and setting up housekeeping.

A married student planning to bring his or her family will need an additional $8,400 per year ($700 per month) for the spouse and $4,200 ($350 per month) for each child.

In computing your expenses, you should bear in mind that students holding Student (F) or Exchange Visitor (J) visas will NOT be authorized to work except under extraordinary circumstances. Therefore, the applicant should not look to employment, either part-time during the academic year or full-time during the summer, as a significant means of support while at Emory University. Under NO circumstances are students permitted to work full-time during the academic year. Spouses of F-1 student visa holders are NOT permitted to work under any circumstances. Please note that your spouse may apply for work permission only if you hold a J-1 Exchange Visitor visa, and ONLY for his or her and the children's support. The spouse of a J-1 Exchange Visitor is permitted to work ONLY with approval from the U.S. Immigration Service. Such approval is not given routinely.
