

Campus Life Committee

Mission Statement

The objective of the committee on Campus Life is that of promoting collective discussion and information sharing on matters of campus concern with the purpose of creating a stronger sense of community on campus.

The committee stresses the productive collaboration among members of the Board of Trustees, administration, faculty, staff and students.

The committee encourages its student members to share in university leadership by participating in the Senate and Board of Trustees meetings, when invited.

The committee offers opinions and assistance to the Office of Campus Life when requested and brings to the Senate floor those matter which need attention and resolution.

The committee promotes periodic campus forums on topics of major concern and interest.

The forums are open to all members of the Emory community and provide an opportunity for collective discussion.
