

Safety & Security Committee
Mission Statement

The mission of the University Safety & Security Committee is to pursue, initiate and support safety and security related issues in the effort towards providing the Emory community with a safer and more secure environment.