

The Transportation and Parking Committee Mission Statement

The Transportation and Parking Committee is a subcommittee of the Emory University Senate. This Committee, made up of Emory community members, serves as a venue for discussions and presentations regarding parking and transportation issues and reports back to the Emory Senate. Committee members also serve on the Parking Violation Appeals Board reviewing personal and written citations.