

*Take a stand against inhumanity
by facing a difficult history with others.*

Become a Volunteer

"Without Sanctuary:
Lynching Photography in America"
Exhibit

May 1 - December 31, 2002

Volunteers will:

- * serve as exhibit docents
- * facilitate dialogue groups
- * provide staffing and information for programmed events

Initial professional training will focus on historical facts behind the exhibit materials as well as listening skills for effectively dealing with the emotions raised within one's self and others given the provocative nature of the images. Volunteers may continue to attend monthly training sessions as needed. Inquiries about volunteering should be directed to the Volunteer Coordinator via e-mail special\_projects@emory.edu or by phone (404) 727-0991.

Sponsored by

Emory University in partnership with the
Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site