

2011-2012 Financial Information Form (FIF)

As an International Student applicant, you are required to certify that you have sufficient funds to cover your expenses while attending Emory University. This form must be completed by every international student seeking admission to Emory. This includes applicants who are awarded teaching assistantships, research assistantships, and other university awards. The admission process is not complete until this form has been completed and returned to the Office of Admission. Visa documents are issued only when all admission procedures have been satisfied.

This form must be completed and returned to:

Emory University
Office of Admission - Undergraduate
3263-001-1AA
1390 Oxford Road NE
Atlanta, Georgia 30322-1016

A current estimate of expenses for one school year (2011-2012):

Tuition	$40,600
Fees	$564
Housing	$6,988
Food	$4,640
Books	$1,100
Travel and Incidentals	$2,100
Accident/Sickness Insurance	$1,895
Initial Costs	$1,000
Total	$58,887

A married student planning to bring his or her family will need about an additional $8,400 per year ($700 per month) for the spouse and $4,200 ($350 per month) for each child.

In computing your expenses, you should bear in mind that students holding Student (F) or Exchange Visitor (J) visas will not be authorized to work except under extraordinary circumstances. Therefore, the applicant should not look to employment, either part-time during the academic year or full-time during the summer, as a significant means of support while at Emory University. Under no circumstances are students permitted to work full-time during the academic year. Spouses of F-1 student visa holders are not permitted to work under any circumstances. Please note that your spouse may apply for work permission only if you hold a J-1 Exchange Visitor visa, and then only for his or her and the children's support. The spouse of a J-1 Exchange Visitor is permitted to work only with approval from the U.S. Immigration Service; such approval is not given routinely.
