A Meal Exchange is a specified menu combination for that particular location that can be purchased at no additional charge. For Dining Plan A only one meal exchange is allowed per student, per meal period, per location. For Dining Plans B, C and D each Meal Exchange is subtracted from total meal entries available.

In addition to the dining hall access and meal exchange, these plans have Dooley Dollars that can be used for the purchase of food at all on-campus food service locations.

Dining Plan K allows unlimited access to the Dobbs Market in the Dobbs University Center that includes non-kosher meals for Breakfast on Monday thru Friday; Brunch on Saturday and Sunday; and Dinner on Friday and Saturday. In addition, Plan K entitles you to 11 meals per week catered by the approved Glatt Kosher caterer, assuring highest level of Kashrut. Kosher lunch Sunday-Friday and Kosher dinner Sunday-Thursday is served in the Dobbs Market.

In addition to the 11 catered meals and Dobbs Market access, the Dining Plan K has $150 Dooley Dollars per semester & Meal Exchange.

DOOLEY DOLLARS

Dooley Dollars can be used for the purchase of food at all on-campus food service locations. Dooley Dollars are also intended for use when the resident dining locations are closed. These include university holidays and breaks, periods between the Fall Semester and Spring Semester and the Spring Semester and Summer Semesters. When purchasing food with Dooley Dollars students will receive a 5% discount off the listed price of all items purchased. There is no sales tax charged on purchases paid with Dooley Dollars thus providing a total savings of over 11%.

Unused Dooley Dollars from the Fall Semester roll over to the Spring Semester dining plans. Unused Dooley Dollars at the end of the Spring Semester can be used, with no additional dining plan purchase, throughout all Summer Sessions. Unused Dooley Dollars at the end of the summer session are forfeited and are non-refundable. Graduating students will not be able to use Dooley Dollars after graduation.
