You’re invited!

EUEC Theater Excursion
Saturday, June 22, 2013
7:30 p.m.

Gretchen Schulz, Emeritus College member and Resident Scholar of the Atlanta Shakespeare Company (ASC), invites Emeritus College members, along with their family and friends, to join her for a production of Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead, Tom Stoppard’s wonderful revisioning of Hamlet from the point of view of his erstwhile school friends, at the New American Shakespeare Tavern, 499 Peachtree Street, Atlanta. The ASC has reserved seating on the main floor for Emeritus College guests. Show time is from 7:30 to 10:30. Arriving no later than 7:00 is recommended—or earlier if you plan to have dinner. Food and drink are available before or during the play. (The menu, along with all other information, is posted online: www.shakespearetavern.com.)

Gretchen has secured discounts that will keep the cost at $30 per person. Gretchen will pay for tickets in advance, with reimbursement due by cash or check at the event. If you would like one or more tickets, please e-mail: gschulz@emory.edu. RSVP is requested no later than Friday, June 14, 2013. Tickets can be picked up at the ticket desk. Mention that you are with the Emory group.

The Tavern is located across from Emory Midtown Hospital. Parking is readily available in the Hospital parking deck and in an open lot, also belonging to the Hospital, at the corner of Renaissance and Peachtree, half a block north of the Tavern. Maps and directions can be found on the aforementioned website. Parking in the deck is $5, payable upon exit. Parking in the open lot is more, perhaps $10 on Saturdays, though it varies, payable upon arrival.

The front entrance to the Tavern involves one flight of stairs, down to the main level. There is a good chair lift attached to the stair railing. Handicapped parking and an entrance without stairs are available at the rear of the Tavern (see details online).

From the desk of Gretchen Schulz

Should you wish to see the Atlanta Shakespeare Company production of Hamlet, running in repertory with Stoppard’s play, please consult the Company website for information, or call the Box Office at (404) 874-5299. You might want to see the Shakespeare performance on Friday, June 21st, before seeing the Stoppard performance with our group on Saturday, June 22nd, taking advantage of the rare opportunity to see the two plays with the same actors in all the roles. The brilliance of Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead will be even more apparent if Hamlet is fresh in your mind.