Dear Members of the Emeritus College and Friends,

Yesterday we held our first breakfast discussion in its new location and had a great turn-out! We will continue to have Breakfast and Lunch discussions throughout the summer, so stay tuned for the speaker information here or on our website. Relevant fliers for the events below are attached if you would like more information about them.

Emeritus College Announcements:

Writers' Group June 9th at 2:30 in Room 419W (go through room 418W to get to this conference room). The Writers' Group was established in order to provide support, encouragement, and help in the process of writing for enjoyment, whether it be scholarly works, novels, poetry, or short stories. All writers are encouraged to be a part of this group, which meets the second Tuesday of each month. Participants submit a sample of current work and the group discusses it at the following meeting. If you would like to find out about more, please email Gene Bianchi. Monthly submissions should be sent to Bob Milledge.

Lunch Discussion June 15th at its new location! Join us at 11:30 a.m. in the MARIAL Conference Room here in Building A of Briarcliff Campus (room 415E) for a discussion led by popular Lifelong Learning lecturer Frances McKibben on "Queen Victoria and John Brown," whose relationship has been a topic of debate since the death of Victoria's precious Prince Albert (Flier attached). Parking on Briarcliff Campus is available in front of Building A. There are spaces marked for Visitors if you do not have an Emeritus hang tag. Please note that this discussion is in a brown bag format so bring something to munch on during the talk!

Other Program Potentially of Interest:

Cultural Studies Lectures/Richard Long: As part of its History in the Making Series Auburn Avenue Research Library on African American Culture and History is delighted to present the Dr. Richard A. Long Dialogue on the Humanities, a series of conversations with select interviewers highlighting Dr. Long's many contributions in five disciplines of Africana and World Cultural Studies. The next talk, on the Music, is scheduled for June 21st. (Flier attached)

As always, please let me know if you have any questions or comments (charity.crabtree@emory.edu) or you may call the Emeritus College offices at 404.712.8834. All of our upcoming events are listed on our website, www.emory.edu/emergitus. Please visit us there!

All the best,
Charity :)
