Dear Members of the Emeritus College and Friends,

As you know, in the past few weeks, we have recently lost several treasured Emeriti: Bond Fleming (Dean, Oxford), Malcolm Freeman (OB/GYN), and Clyde Partin (Health and P.E). I will keep you informed as I receive more information.

The memorial service for Dr. Fleming will be this Thursday (July 2nd) at 2:00 p.m. in Glenn Memorial Church. I hope you will be able to attend.

Below I have listed a few of our upcoming events. Please let me know if you'd like to be more involved in these or other Emeritus College activities.

Emeritus College Announcements:

Breakfast Discussion July 6th! Join us at 9:00 a.m. in the MARIAL Conference Room here in Building A of Briarcliff Campus (room 415E) for a discussion led by Professor Emeritus of Biochemistry Donald McCormick on "Vitamins and Trace Elements." Dr. McCormick, a widely known expert, talk about micronutrients —how much we need and how they function in our bodies (Flier attached; see note below).

Lunch Discussion July 15th! Join us at 11:30 a.m. in the MARIAL Conference Room here in Building A of Briarcliff Campus (room 415E) for a discussion led by retired VP of Coca-Cola and popular Lifelong Learning lecturer Jack Carew entitled "Government Paid Healthcare is Coming to the US." Why couldn't Hillary Clinton get government paid health care passed in the early 1990s, and does Obama have a better chance? What will he do differently? How will it be paid for? (Flier attached; see note below).

Important Note: Parking on Briarcliff Campus is available in front of Building A. There are spaces marked for Visitors if you do not have an
