Dear Members of the Emeritus College and Friends,

As always, I hope this email finds you all well. There is not much to add this week. I have been making some additions to the website, and will be announcing those soon, so feel free to visit it and look around (www.emory.edu/emeritus). In the meantime, relevant fliers for the events below are attached if you would like more information about them.

Emeritus College Announcements:

Lunch Discussion June 15th at its new location! Join us at 11:30 a.m. in the MARIAL Conference Room here in Building A of Briarcliff Campus (room 415E) for a discussion led by popular Lifelong Learning lecturer Frances McKibben on “Queen Victoria and John Brown,” whose relationship has been a topic of debate since the death of Victoria’s precious Prince Albert (Flier attached). Parking on Briarcliff Campus is available in front of Building A. There are spaces marked for Visitors if you do not have an Emeritus hang tag. Please note that this discussion is in a brown bag format so bring something to munch on during the talk!

Other Program Potentially of Interest:

Cultural Studies Lectures/Richard Long: As part of its History in the Making Series Auburn Avenue Research Library on African American Culture and History is delighted to present the Dr. Richard A. Long Dialogue on the Humanities, a series of conversations with select interviewers highlighting Dr. Long’s many contributions in five disciplines of Africana and World Cultural Studies. The next talk, on the Music, is scheduled for June 21st. (Flier attached)
