Dear Members of the Emeritus College,

I hope this email finds you all well! Several relevant fliers are attached if you would like more information about the events listed below.

Emeritus College Announcements:

Lunch Discussion May 20th!! Join us in the Oxford Room of the Hospital Cafeteria for a discussion led by Gene Bianchi (Religion) entitled “Novelist and Novel.” He will discuss issues surrounding the writing of his most recent novel, The Children’s Crusade: Scandal at the Vatican, such as literature and ideology, fictional characters and people he’s known, and the challenges of writing a child abuse plot. (Flier attached).

Retirement Seminar tomorrow afternoon (May 6th): Our annual retirement seminar will be held in the Winship Ballroom of the DUC tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. Please let me know if you would like to attend!

We are excited to announce that beginning in June, breakfast discussions will be held here on the Briarcliff Campus!

Other Programs Potentially of Interest:

1. 5/17 Cultural Studies Lecture/Richard Long
 2. May Older American’s Month/Administration on Aging
1. Cultural Studies Lectures/Richard Long: As part of its History in the Making Series Auburn Avenue Research Library on African American Culture and History is delighted to present the Dr. Richard A. Long Dialogue on the Humanities, a series of conversations with select interviewers highlighting Dr. Long’s many contributions in five disciplines of Africana and World Cultural Studies. The next talk, on the visual Arts, is scheduled for May 17th. (Flier attached)
 2. Older Americans Month/Administration on Aging: President Obama has declared May to be Older Americans Month. He says, “Older Americans have carried our Nation through great challenges and triumphs. They have enriched our national character and strengthened the Republic for those who have followed. During the month of May, we pay tribute to the wisest among us.” For more information, visit the website of the Administration on Aging (<http://www.aoa.gov/>)

As always, please let me know if you have any questions or comments (charity.crabtree@emory.edu) or you may call the Emeritus College offices at 404.712.8834. All of our upcoming events are listed on our website, www.emory.edu/emmeritus. Please visit us there!

All the best,
Charity :)
