

Understanding Race and Difference

---

Accomplishments: September 2008 to August 2009

- Hired post-doctoral fellow Esther Jones
- Partnered with numerous Emory departments and programs for a multi-institution initiative focused on Motherhood at the Intersection of Race and Class, sponsored by Clark Atlanta University, Emory, Morehouse College, and Georgia Institute of Technology. This initiative culminated in a public address offered by Professor Angela Davis

---

Accomplishments: September 2007 to August 2008

- Carol Anderson (Professorship in Civil Rights) was appointed and will begin in the 2009-2010 academic year. Race and Difference Initiative (RDI) hired Ester Jones as a one-year post-doc (with an office in Women's Studies)

---

Accomplishments: September 2006 to August 2007

- Constituted faculty leadership team and submitted RDI plan and budget
- Received approval for budget for FY08-11 for each of four sub-initiative areas:
  - Race, Community, and the Emory Curriculum
  - Difference, Diversity, and the International Community
  - Conflict Resolution and Social Engagement
  - Difference, Gender, and Sexuality

---

Accomplishments: September 2005 to August 2006

- Began exploratory consultations regarding the possible development of a center on Race, Culture, Religion, and Politics that draws upon distinctive university and metropolitan resources